NEWS RELEASE

CEMATRIX Corporation Announces New Contracts

Calgary, Alberta – March 1, 2018: CEMATRIX Corporation (TSXV: CVX) (the “Corporation” or “CEMATRIX”) announces that its wholly owned operating subsidiary, CEMATRIX (Canada) Inc. has secured $1.4 million in new infrastructure contracts. These new contracts increase this year’s contracted sales to $6.2 million. Total contracts and verbally awarded projects now exceeds $11.5 million for 2018.

“We are now seeing previously verbally awarded projects becoming fully contracted, which is in line with our expectations” stated Jeff Kendrick, CEMATRIX President and CEO. “Since breakeven for the Company is approximately $11 million annually, the Company is poised for a return to profitability in 2018. This does not include the proposed acquisition of Chicago based MixOnSite USA Inc. (MOS) as announced on February 26, 2018. Combined CEMATRIX and MOS contracted and verbally awarded projects are now in excess of $26 million for the year ended December 31, 2018 and expected to continue to grow.”

CEMATRIX is an Alberta corporation with its head offices in Calgary, Alberta. The Corporation, through its wholly owned subsidiary, is a rapidly growing company that manufactures and supplies technologically advanced cellular concrete products developed from proprietary formulations. This unique cement-based material with superior thermal protection, delivers a cost-effective, innovative solution to a broad range of problems facing the infrastructure, industrial (including oil and gas) and commercial markets.
