CEMATRIX Corporation Announces New Contracts

- Contracted Revenue For 2018 Completion Now Exceeds $18.4 Million

Calgary, Alberta – July 3, 2018: CEMATRIX Corporation (TSXV: CVX) (the “Corporation” or “CEMATRIX”) announces that its wholly owned operating subsidiary, CEMATRIX (Canada) Inc. has secured $1.4 million in new infrastructure contracts. These new contracts increase this year’s contracted sales to $8.8 million. Total contracts and verbally awarded projects for CEMATRIX Canada, now exceeds $12.8 million for 2018.

CEMATRIX’s newest subsidiary, MixOnSite of Chicago, has approximately $16.5 million contracted and verbally awarded to date for 2018 and beyond, $13.3 million of which is contracted. This brings the current year’s total of contracted and verbally awarded consolidated sales for CEMATRIX to $29.3 million, of which approximately $6.9 million is scheduled to be completed in 2019 and 2020.

“These new Canadian infrastructure contracts, combined with the US projects picked up with the acquisition of MixOnSite, which closed May 31, 2018, will mean a record year for CEMATRIX for 2018,” stated Jeff Kendrick, CEMATRIX President and CEO. “On an annualized basis, 2018 sales would exceed $30 million Canadian and we can expect these sales levels to continue to grow with the increased acceptance of cellular concrete across North America and the continued application of Joint Marketing and Regional Expansion Agreements with Lafarge.”

CEMATRIX is an Alberta corporation with its head offices in Calgary, Alberta. The Corporation, through its wholly owned subsidiary, is a rapidly growing company that manufactures and supplies technologically advanced cellular concrete products developed from proprietary formulations. This unique cement-based material with superior thermal protection, delivers a cost-effective, innovative solution to a broad range of problems facing the infrastructure, industrial (including oil and gas) and commercial markets.
